The Present from France

How is the present from France a symbol for immigrants and citizens?

How does this relate to the symbols of Texas we learned?

Can a symbol have different meanings to different people?